NTCA Bowling All-America Teams Announced

NASHVILLE, TN---Lisa Friscioni of NCAA champion Fairleigh Dickinson University and Lindsay Baker of two-time champion University of Nebraska headline the 2006 All-America bowling team while Mike LoPresti of Fairleigh Dickinson and Frank Parisi of New Jersey City University were named "Coach of the Year" in Division I and II/III respectively as announced today by the National Ten Pin Coaches Association.

Baker, who's 215 average was the best in the country this year, edged Friscioni in tight balloting for the NTCA Division I "Player of the Year" Award as both were named to the first team. Other first-team selections were Michelle Peloquin of Vanderbilt, Bryanna Caldwell of Central Missouri State University was named Division II/III "Player of the Year" and Amanda Burgoyne of Nebraska.

Peloquin was the only freshman on the first All-America team and she was a run-away winner for national Division I "Rookie of the Year" honors. Sara Cahill, a freshman from Minnesota State Mankato, earned DII/DIII "Rookie of the Year" honors.

The NTCA All-America second team included Whitney Smith of national runner-up Alabama A&M along with Kristina Szalay of Fairleigh Dickinson, Jamie Martin of Nebraska, Tina Peak of Central Missouri and Vicki Spratford of New Jersey City.

Six women were named to the honorable mention list. They included Alex McIntyre of Alabama A&M, Tara Kane of Vanderbilt, Becky Ketcham of Fairleigh Dickinson, Karen Syrocki of Arkansas State University, Maryetta Lewis from the University of Maryland Eastern Shore and Shanice Graham of Alabama A&M University.

Voting was conducted by membership of the NTCA.
